9
10 Resolutions relative to street lights shall only be placed on the Consent Calendar docket if 11 there are street lights to be considered by the City Council at its meeting.

12
13 c. Upon receiving a “second” to the motion for favorable action, the Council President shall 14 request the Chairperson of the Committee to describe the items recommended for action
15 on the Consent Calendar.

18 item(s) on the Consent Calendar receive separate consideration by the City Council in order
19 to allow for discussion of the items, to cast a dissenting vote, or to abstain from voting on 20 the item. There shall be one (1) roll call vote on the Consent Calendar, which shall be 21 deemed to be a vote on each of the items on the Calendar. Any item removed from the 22 Calendar for separate consideration shall be taken up and vote upon immediately following
23 the vote on the Consent Calendar.

24
25 RULE 14: Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these rules, as part of the Consent Calendar

33 or condolences in resolution form with appropriate language, using the omnibus number
34 previously assigned, followed by an alphabetical letter. The Clerk shall then transmit the document
